

NOTICE OF POLLING DISTRICT REVIEW IN THE DISTRICT OF UTTLESFORD

The Council intends to carry out a statutory review of Parliamentary polling districts and polling places in the Uttlesford District.

The timetable for the review is as follows:

- Initial consultation period for the submission of any proposals ending on 30 September 2011
- Evaluation of any proposals received and of all existing polling district boundaries and the facilities available in designated polling places by 7 October 2011
- Publication of a draft proposed scheme of polling arrangements for consultation on 10 October 2011
- Final consultation period to end on 1 November 2011.
- Evaluation of any further representations received by 11 November 2011
- Approval by the Council of the final revised polling scheme on 29 November 2011
- Publication of final proposals and the statement of reasons on 1 December 2011 when the revised arrangements will take effect

The full terms of reference of the review are published on the Council's website and may be inspected at the Council Offices. The same applies to the existing scheme of polling arrangements.

The Council is required to consult the Returning Officer for the Parliamentary constituency of Saffron Walden. He in turn is required to make representations and the Council is required within thirty days to publish them.

Anyone having an interest in this review is encouraged to submit relevant comments and, where applicable, alternative proposals.

All representations should be sent to the review officer, Peter Snow at the address below or to psnow@uttlesford.gov.uk.
