1.4 Interpretation and Review of the Constitution

Where the Constitution permits the Council to choose between different courses of action, the Council will always choose that option which it thinks is closest to the purposes stated above.

The Council will monitor and evaluate the operation of the Constitution as set out in Article 15.

Article 2 - Members of the Council

Developing Roles for Councillors

2.1 Composition and eligibility

- 2.1.1 The Council will comprise 39 members called councillors. One or more councillors will be elected by the voters of each ward in accordance with a scheme drawn up by the Local Government Boundary Commission and approved by the Secretary of State.
- 2.1.2 Councillors are elected and hold office in accordance with the relevant statutory qualifications, and will usually be either electors or residents of the district, or have their main place of work there.

2.2 Election and terms of councillors

The regular election of councillors will be held on the first Thursday in May every four years, unless otherwise determined by statute or by regulation. The next election is due to be held in May 2019. The term of office of councillors will start on the fourth day after being elected and will finish on the fourth day after the date of the next regular election.

2.3 Roles and functions of all councillors

All councillors will:

- 2.3.1 collectively be the ultimate policy-makers and carry out a number of strategic and corporate management functions, subject to those matters reserved to the executive;
- 2.3.2 contribute to the good governance of the area and actively encourage community participation and citizen involvement in decision-making;

PART 2 - ARTICLE 2 MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL

- 2.3.3 represent their communities and bring their views into the Council's decision-making and scrutiny processes, ie become the advocate of and for their communities;
- 2.3.4 deal with individual casework and act as an advocate for constituents in resolving particular concerns or grievances;
- 2.3.5 balance different interests identified within their ward and represent the ward as a whole;
- 2.3.6 be involved in decision-making;
- 2.3.7 be available to represent the Council on other bodies; and
- 2.3.8 maintain the highest standards of conduct and ethics as set out in the Code of Conduct in Part 5 of this Constitution and in other relevant documents.

2.4 Rights and duties

- 2.4.1 Councillors will have such rights of access to such documents, information, land and buildings of the Council as are necessary for the proper discharge of their functions and in accordance with the law.
- 2.4.2 Councillors will not make public information which is confidential or exempt without the consent of the Council or divulge information given in confidence to anyone other than a councillor or officer entitled to know it. For these purposes, "confidential" and "exempt" information are defined in the Access to Information Rules in Part 4 of this Constitution.

2.5 Conduct

Councillors will at all times observe the Members' Code of Conduct and the Protocol on Member/Officer Relations set out in Part 5 of this Constitution.

2.6 Allowances

Councillors will be entitled to receive allowances in accordance with the Members' Allowance Scheme set out in Part 6 of this Constitution.

Article 3 - Citizens and The Council

3.1 Citizens rights

Citizens have the following rights. Their rights to information and to participate are explained in more detail in the Access to Information Rules in Part 4 of this Constitution:

3.1.1 Voting and petitions

Citizens on the electoral register for the area have the right to vote and sign a petition to request a referendum for an elected mayor form of Constitution. Citizens also have a right to petition under the Council's petition schemes (see below).

3.1.2 Access to Information

Citizens have the right to:

- (i) attend meetings of the Council and its committees except where confidential or exempt information is likely to be disclosed, and the meeting is therefore held in private;
- (ii) attend meetings of the executive and its committees when key and other decisions are being considered, except when confidential or exempt information is likely to be disclosed, and the meeting is therefore held in private;
- (iii) find out from published Notices of Key Decisions what key decisions will be taken by the executive and when;
- (iv) see reports and background papers, and any records of decisions made by the Council and the executive; and

- (v) inspect the Council's accounts and make their views known to the external auditor.

3.1.3 Participation

Citizens have the right to participate in the time set aside for public statements and questions, subject to the time limits set in Part 4 of this Constitution, at all public meetings and contribute to investigations by overview and scrutiny committees.

3.1.4 Petitions

- (i) The Council welcomes petitions and recognises that petitions are one way in which people can let us know their concerns. All petitions sent or presented to the Council will receive an acknowledgement from the Council within 10 working days of receipt. This acknowledgement will set out what we plan to do with the petition. We will treat something as a petition if it is identified as being a petition, or if it seems to us that it is intended to be a petition. Paper petitions can be sent to: Democratic and Electoral Services, Uttlesford District Council, London Road, Saffron Walden, Essex CB11 4ER. Alternatively, links to external online petitions can be sent to committee@uttlesford.gov.uk

The Council offers an online petition system, which means citizens will be able to create a petition via the Council's website. Petitions can also be presented to a meeting of the Council, provided that reasonable notice is given. Dates and times of meetings can be found on the Council's website.

- (ii) Citizens who wish to present their petition to the Council, or would like their councillor or someone else to present it on their behalf, should contact Democratic Services on 01799 510433 or by email at committee@uttlesford.gov.uk at least 10 working days before the meeting. Democratic Services officers will be pleased to explain the process for submitting petitions.

- (iii) Petitions submitted to the Council must include a clear and concise statement covering the subject of the petition stating what action the petitioners wish the Council to take and the name, address and signature of any person supporting the petition. Petitions should also be accompanied by contact details of the organiser, including an address. This is the person we will contact to explain how the Council will respond to the petition. The contact details of the petition organiser will not be publicised. If a petition organiser is not identified the Council will contact the person submitting the petition or will contact other signatories to try to agree who should act as the petition organiser.
- (iv) In order to be properly constituted, a petition must satisfy one or more of the following conditions:
- be signed by no fewer than 50 individuals who are electors of the district of Uttlesford
 - Be signed by the chairman of no fewer than five councils of parishes within the Uttlesford district
 - Be signed by no fewer than half the electors of any single parish within the district of Uttlesford whether or not the parish has a parish council
- (v) Petitions which are considered to be vexatious, abusive or otherwise inappropriate will not be accepted. In the period immediately before an election or referendum the Council may need to deal with petitions differently - if this is the case the Council will explain the reasons and discuss the revised timescale which will apply. If a petition does not follow the guidelines set out above, the Council may decide not to do anything further with it. In that case the Council will explain the reasons in writing.

- (vi) An acknowledgement will be sent to the petition organiser within 10 working days of receiving the petition. It will let them know what the Council plans to do with the petition and when they can expect to hear from the Council again.
- (vii) If the Council can do what the petition asks for, the acknowledgement may confirm that the Council has taken the action requested and the petition will be closed. If the petition has enough signatures to trigger a Council debate, or a senior officer giving evidence, then the acknowledgment will confirm this and tell the organiser when and where the meeting will take place. If the petition needs more investigation, the Council will tell you the steps it plans to take.
- (viii) Petitions may not be used to call into question decisions relating to planning or licensing matters and decisions relating to individuals or legal bodies where there is a statutory right of appeal.
- (ix) Statutory petitions are the subject of different procedures. These relate, for example, to a petition calling for a referendum on having an elected mayor or petitions for which there may be other statutory provision. Further information is available from the Assistant Director – Governance and Legal or from Democratic Services (committee@uttlesford.gov.uk).

(x) To ensure that people know what we are doing in response to the petitions the Council receives, the details of all the petitions submitted will be published on the Council's website, except where this would be inappropriate. Whenever possible the Council will also publish all correspondence relating to petitions (all personal details will be removed).

(xi) The Council's response to a petition will depend on what a petition asks for and how many people have signed it. The Council will consider all the specific actions it can potentially take on the issues highlighted in a petition but its response may include one or more of the following:

- taking the action requested in the petition
- considering the petition at a Council meeting (if there are at least 3,600 signatures)
- holding an inquiry into the matter
- undertaking research into the matter
- holding a public meeting
- referring the petition for consideration by the Council's Scrutiny Committee (if there are at least 1,800 signatures, or for other valid reasons)
- writing to the petition organiser setting out the Council's views about the request in the petition

(xii) If a petition is about something over which the Council has no direct control (for example Stansted Airport, the local railway or hospital or services run by the county council such as schools, social services or road repairs) the Council will consider making representations on behalf of the community to the relevant body. The Council works with a large number of local partners and where possible will work with these partners to respond to a petition. If the Council is not able to do this for any reason (for example if what the petition calls for conflicts with Council policy), then it will set out the reasons for this to the petition organiser. If a petition is about something that a different council is responsible for, the Council will give consideration to what the best method is for responding to it. This might consist of simply forwarding the petition to the other council, but could involve other steps.

(xiii) If a petition contains more than 3,600 signatures it will be debated by the Full Council unless it is a petition asking for a senior council officer to give evidence at a public meeting. This means that the issue raised in the petition will be discussed at a meeting which all councillors can attend. The Council will endeavour to consider the petition at its next meeting, although on some occasions this may not be possible and consideration will then take place at the following meeting. The petition organiser will be given five minutes to present the petition at the meeting and the petition will then be discussed by councillors. The Council will decide how to respond to the petition at this meeting. It may decide to take the action the petition requests, not to take the action requested for reasons put forward in the debate, or to commission further investigation into the matter, for example by a relevant committee. The petition organiser will receive written confirmation of this decision. This confirmation will also be published on the Council's website.

(xiv) A petition may ask for a senior council officer to give evidence at a public meeting about something for which the officer is responsible as part of their job. For example, a petition may ask a senior council officer to explain progress on an issue, or to explain the advice given to elected members to enable them to make a particular decision. If a petition contains at least 1,800 signatures, the relevant senior officer will give evidence at a public meeting of the Council's Scrutiny Committee. The senior officers are the Chief Executive, the Directors, and the Assistant Directors. Details are available on www.uttlesford.gov.uk in the "Your Council" section. Petitioners must be aware that it may not be possible for senior officers to answer questions about particular petitions if, for example, doing so would breach commercial confidentiality or professional legal privilege. Petitioners should also be aware that the Scrutiny Committee may decide that it would be more appropriate for a different senior officer to give evidence instead of any officer named in the petition - for instance if the named officer has changed jobs. Committee members will ask the questions at this meeting, but petition organisers will be able to suggest questions by contacting Democratic Services, on 01799 510433 or at committee@uttlesford.gov.uk up to three working days before the meeting. Petitioners may also register to speak in the public speaking period preceding every Committee meeting.

- (xv) A petition organiser has the right to request that the Council's Scrutiny Committee review the steps that the Council has taken in response to a petition. It is helpful to everyone, and can improve the prospects for a review if the petition organiser gives a short explanation of the reasons why the Council's response is not considered to be adequate. The committee will endeavour to consider the request at its next meeting, although on some occasions this may not be possible and consideration will take place at the following meeting. Should the committee determine that the Council has not dealt with the petition adequately, it may use any of its powers to deal with the matter. These powers include instigating an investigation or arranging for the matter to be considered at a meeting of Full Council. Once the review has been considered the petition organiser will be informed of the outcome within 10 working days. The results of the review will also be published on the Council's website. If, however, the Council had already sent the petition to the Scrutiny Committee for consideration and the petitioner is unhappy with the outcome, then the review will be conducted by the Standards Committee.

3.1.5 Complaints

Citizens have the right to complain to:

- (i) the Council itself under its complaints scheme;
- (ii) the Ombudsman after using the Council's own complaints scheme;
- (iii) the Information Commissioner after using the Council's own complaints scheme;
- (iv) the Monitoring Officer of the Council about a breach of the Councillors' Code of Conduct.

- 10.1.5 In making recommendations to the appointing body a task group may not recommend its continuance or the appointment of another task group to exist beyond the date upon which its final report is required but without prejudice to the right of the appointing body to appoint the same or different members as a task group to complete the task.

10.1.7 Upon being informed that a task group has been established the Chief Executive shall designate a lead officer to that group. In the event that the Chief Executive is of the view that the task group is repeating work recently undertaken by a task group which has ceased to exist by virtue of Article 10.1.4 or is substantially duplicating the work of another task group or another body of the Council he or she may in the case of a task group established by a committee of the Council make a report to Full Council and in the case of a task group established by the executive or a committee of the executive make a report to the Leader and the task group shall not proceed until such time as Full Council or the Leader (as the case may be) has considered the Chief Executive's advice.
