Reasons for which there is a risk to the licensing objectives, and why the objection or conditions proposed are appropriate to prevent crime including illegal working in licensed premises.

Prevention of Crime and Disorder.

Home Office (Immigration Enforcement) as a responsible authority

Section 36 and Schedule 4 of the Immigration Act 2016 (the 2016 Act) amended the Licensing Act 2003 (the 2003 Act) to introduce immigration safeguards in respect of licensing applications made in England and Wales on or after 6 April 2017. The intention is to prevent illegal working in premises licensed for the sale of alcohol or late night refreshment. The Home Secretary (in practice Home Office (Immigration Enforcement)) was added to the list of Responsible Authorities (RA) in the licensing regime, which requires Home Office (Immigration Enforcement) to receive premises licence applications (except regulated entertainment only licences and applications to vary a Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS)), and in some limited circumstances personal licence applications. In carrying out the role of responsible authority, Home Office (Immigration Enforcement) is permitted to make relevant representations and objections to the grant of a licence or request a review of an existing licence as a responsible authority where there is concern that a licence and related licensable activity is prejudicial to the prevention of immigration crime including illegal working

Home Office (Immigration Enforcement) recommends that the following condition(s) be applied to the premises licence [delete as necessary, where applicable]:

- ✓ the employer must carry out right checks relating to the right to work of their employees at the premises at [insert address of premises] and any prospective employees before entering into a contract of employment;
- ✓ the employer must retain copies of documents as a result of conducting checks relating to the right to work. These must be stored securely by the employer at the premises or a digital copy must be immediately accessible from the premises for ease of inspection by immigration officials;

- ✓ The employer, or any person appearing to represent the employer, must be able to produce on demand documents relating to the right to work, at the request of an immigration officer who enters the premises to carry out an inspection under section 179 (1A) of the 2003 Act.
- ✓ Other:
If this application is not objected to, please consider placing the above conditions on the licence.

Police Objection Notice – New Grant Premises Licence

On 21/12/2017 Essex Police received from Mr Nazrul Islam Tapadar an application in respect of a new premises licence for 56 HIGH STREET NEWPORT SAFFRON WALDEN ESSEX CB11 3QX. Essex Police are satisfied this event is likely to undermine the Prevention of Crime and Disorder and the Public Safety Objective contained within the Licensing Act 2003.

The details supporting this belief are as provided below;

PREVENTION OF CRIME AND DISORDER

The premises until recently had a Premise Licence. On Sept 2017 an immigration raid was carried out at the premises by HMIC. Following the discovery of illegal workers a review application was made by Essex Police. Subsequently a licensing committee on hearing evidence presented took the decision to revoke the premises licence.

There has been no appeal received in respect of this decision from the premises licence holder as was, Mr Shamin Ahmed. Rather, this new application was received.

The new grant application is made in the name of Mr Nazmul Islam Tapadar and presents as an entirely separate business and application.

Enquiries have found this not to be the case and it is the contention of Essex Police that the new applicant is a silent partner in business with Mr Shamin Ahmed and by association the application is an attempt to reinstate the previous licence.

Companies house and britaincompanies.com websites show both Mr Shamin Ahmed and Mr Nazmul Islam Tapadar as dissolved officers of the same company (Radhuni UK Ltd inc 13/07/2005), and Mr Nazmul Islam Tapadar as Director of Curryworld London Ltd, registered address 56 High St Newport CB113QX as of 19/09/17.

A visit to the premises after a failed attempt to contact Mr Nazmul Islam Tapadar by telephone to discuss the licence application, on 18/01/2018 revealed the following:

Mr Nazmul Islam Tapadar was not at the premises. The only person on the premises identifying himself as able to speak English was [REDACTED] who stated that he was not a staff member but a cousin of the manager Mr Shamin Ahmed who was still in control of the premises. Mr Ahmed was not reachable by telephone. There were several other members of staff at the premises whom [REDACTED] apparently could not speak English. There were no right to work checks available when [REDACTED] was asked. [REDACTED] stated that Mr Nazmul Islam Tapadar was out of the country and not available, and was a silent business partner and that Mr Shamin Ahmed was the main manager. Despite the fact that there is currently no licence in respect of the premises, there were many alcoholic beverages visible being offered for sale and each table had a wine list. [REDACTED] stated that the alcohol was only there for display and they won't sell it to anyone until they have a licence. It was explained that offering the alcohol for sale was in contravention to licensing legislation.

The crime and disorder objective will be undermined as there has been no change in premise management, there has been no effort made to ensure the failures leading to the revocation can evidence being rectified, the manager and applicant are both personal licence holders and in business together, one having already held the position of Designated Premises Supervisor at the premises and the other proposed; despite this position of responsibility and assumed awareness of Licensing legislation that accompanies it, there was still allowed the offer for sale of alcohol by these same persons whilst there was no licence in respect of the premises.

You are invited to discuss this matter with Vicky Powell, the Police Licensing Officer at Braintree Police Station.
